Sam Snitchy is back with the second release "talking talking"

Sam Snitchy - the man with many names and faces. 25 years of street, club and festival shows as Maniporno aka Melker with two album releases in 2016 and 2018 (Warmer Bros/Irascible). In 2021, the Sam Snitchy Project was created within a few days to play a single show together with musician and producer Marco Fuorigioco (bass/synths/programming) and Tobi Highm (drums). Later, Fuorigioco recorded and produced the debut album "get me wrong" that was released on Voodoo Rhythm Records in 2022. Sam Snitchy began touring in Switzerland, France, Germany and Denmark, with Maze Kalin on bass, Tobi Highm on drums and Fuorigioco on synths.

In February 2023 the Bernese Gutter-Poet and Fuorigioco came together again to work on their second Sam Snitchy album. It was created and recorded during a heavy cyclone in Siracusa in Sicily, which proved to be the perfect backdrop for a synthetic punk protest. A few nasty ironic thoughts over blaring beats and hypnotic fuzzy basslines, crossed with analog acid-synths and psychedelic organ loops - it is a mantric album to heal the shit out of your lost soul.
